Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court that is different from the court where the case is filed. To check location information about an ADR event, select the Notices tab on the top of the case detail page.

Short calendar and family support magistrate calendar matters are generally not shown as individually scheduled court events. You can see information on matters appearing on short calendars and family support magistrate calendars by going to the Civil/Family Case Look-Up page and choosing Short Calendars By Juris Number or By Court Location.

Periodic changes to terminology that do not affect the status of the case may be made.

This list does not constitute or replace official notice of scheduled court events.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.
