She said there were no records because of a ruling not to disclose. Then added:

Dear [Redacted]:

The Office of the Attorney General (“OAG”) does not have any consumer complaints relating to Southwestern Women's Surgery Center. The OAG is, however, conducting a civil investigation against multiple defendants, including Southwestern Women's Surgery Center. Information pertaining to this investigation has been the subject of a prior request for information. In response, the OAG sought and received a ruling from the Open Records Division allowing us to withhold information relating to this investigation. I have attached a copy of that ruling for your review. If you are requesting information pertaining to this investigation, the OAG will seek a ruling for any additional responsive records that have been obtained/created since the issuance of the attached ruling. Please advise. Thank you.

Sincerely,

June B. Harden
Assistant Attorney General
Assistant Public Information

So I asked her to seek a further ruling.
