

Timothy Spurrell

MD, M.Ed. Clinical Advisor. Rhode Island

Tim is a board certified obstetrician and gynecologist from Providence, Rhode Island. Tim has been practicing for 15 years, first as a partner in his own private practice, then as Medical Director for Planned Parenthood of Southern New England. He is also the Chair of Ob/Gyn at a local community hospital, and has teaching appointments both at Yale and Brown Universities. Tim is an avid redesigner, always looking for the most efficient and patient-centered approaches in every health center where he practices. Tim is a father of 5 boys and cycles across the country for fun!
