A new women's healthcare clinic applying for a license to perform abortions could be set to open soon in New Orleans East, according to WVUE Fox 8.

The clinic, Deanz Health Care for Women at 5437 Crowder Blvd., is reportedly owned by Dr. Rashonda Dean, and has garnered the attention of the pro-life group, Louisiana Right to Life, which wrote about the proposed clinic on its website

"I believe that all women have freedom of choice and deserve compassionate care," Dean wrote in a statement to WVUE Fox 8 in response. "At Deanz Health Care For Women, it is my goal to treat all patients with dignity and respect while delivering the best quality health care in an environment where patients can feel safe and comforted."

An opening date for Deanz Health Care wasn't immediately known.
