

El Paso News

Pro-life organizations to protest Planned Parenthood reopening in El Paso

By:

Kayla Melson (<https://www.ktsm.com/meet-the-team/kayla-melson/691152424>)

✉ (<mailto:kmelson@elpasoproud.com>)

Updated: Oct 11, 2018 07:27 PM MST

(Interactive Media Not Supported by Print)

EL PASO, Texas (KTSM) - The Southwest Coalition for Life and other faith-based pro-life organizations will gather in Downtown El Paso on Friday to protest Planned Parenthood returning to El Paso.

As KTSM previously reported, the non-profit women's health clinic is expected to begin providing services this month at its facility located at 1151 E. Missouri.

Members of the Southwest Coalition for Life say Planned Parenthood "brings scandal to our city" and accuse the organization of scheduling sex-selective abortions, accepting donations to target minorities, and more.

The organization also says Planned Parenthood facilities cause "a loss of local business commerce and declining property values due to public sentiment, frequent protests, prayer vigils, and public demonstrations inevitably held outside of their facilities".

As KTSM previously shared, Bishop Mark Seitz said he was "very disappointed to hear of plans to open a large Planned Parenthood Abortion facility in El Paso". To read his full statement, click HERE.

The protest is scheduled to take place at noon Friday at 1151 E. Missouri.

Copyright 2018 Nexstar Broadcasting, Inc. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed.

---