Haverhill: closed!

Doctor Marcus Gordon's abortion mill in Haverhill has officially closed! Just a few months ago he closed his Lynn facility and opened a new one in Beverly. The Natick abortion facility may also be closed; we are checking into it. North Attleboro: still operational as far as we can tell.

Rita Russo (ABOVE) and her husband John were counseling at Women's Health in Brookline Friday morning. A couple came out of the facility; as they drove out of the parking lot they stopped, rolled down the window, and the woman said, "I didn't do it!"
That's number 9!
