In furtherance of these corporate purposes, the Bylaws are adopted.

ARTICLE I OFFICES

The corporation shall have its principal office in the County of Santa Barbara, State of California, and may have offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

The Board of Directors may establish other categories of persons associated with the corporation and may prescribe the time, place and manner of meetings of such persons. Although these persons shall have no voting rights or responsibilities, and are not members within the meaning of Section 5056, they may be referred to as members.

ARTICLE III BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers and Responsibilities

The members of the Board of Directors shall act only as a board, and an individual Board member shall have no power as such. All corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by, or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the Board of Directors, subject however to such limitations as are imposed by law, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws. The Board of Directors may, by contract or otherwise, give general or limited or special power and authority to the officers and employees of the corporation to transact the general business or any special business of the corporation, and may give powers of attorney to agents of the corporation to transact any special business requiring such authorization. The corporation will not enter into any contract or other arrangement for the use of a facility that discriminates in its membership policies or otherwise, whether written or in practice on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, disability, income, marital status or other bases protected by applicable law.

The Board is ultimately responsible for the financial wellbeing of the corporation.

In addition to the other powers contained herein, the Board of Directors shall have the power and responsibility to:

- a) Adopt, make, and use a corporate seal;
- b) Establish or change the principal executive office of the affiliate or the principal business office;
- c) Borrow and lend money and incur indebtedness on behalf of the corporation and cause to be executed and delivered for the corporation's purpose, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, and other evidence of securities;

- d) Establish the policies of the organization in accordance with the policies of PFFA;
- e) Establish long range goals of the organization and monitor these goals annually;
- f) Raise funds and accept monies on behalf of the organization;
- g) Maintain the fiscal integrity of the organization, adopt and monitor the annual budget, review the annual audit; the management letter and response to the management letter
- h) Approve the appointment of the committee chairmen and legal counsel as proposed by the Chair;

The CEO is solely responsible to the Board and shall establish procedures and administer the policies and programs of the agency, employ, supervise and terminate staff; and ensure that all activities, programs, services and pronouncements of the agency are in conformity with PFFA Standards and Policies.
- j) Perform an annual job performance review and fix the compensation of the President and CEO in accordance with the Personnel Practices of the organization; and
- k) Appoint and remove at will the directors of any ancillary corporation including, but not limited to, a 501(c)(4).

Section 2. Number and Qualification of Directors

- a) The Board of Directors shall consist of at least 15 (fifteen) but not more than twenty-five (25) directors until changed by amendment to these Bylaws. The exact number of directors shall be fixed, within the foregoing limits, each year pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 below.

b) Members of the Board shall consist of such individuals as the Board of Directors determines to be appropriate, subject to the following limitations:

i) No director shall have any direct or indirect financial interest in the assets or leases of the corporation, nor be in a position to use their membership on the Board to influence the use or sale of specific products or services in which they have a direct or indirect financial interest; nor accept any gift or gratuity from any pharmaceutical firm or other supplier to the affiliate or from any provider of service or potential provider of service to the affiliate other than unconditional gifts of nominal value (e.g. modestly priced meals or medical textbooks, or such items such as pens, calendars and notepads). No gifts of cash or cash equivalents are permitted. No individual volunteer member of the affiliate shall be granted a loan from the funds of the affiliate irrespective of the source of the funds.

ii) Without limiting the generality of Article III, Section 2(b)(i), above, no more than 49% of the persons serving on the Board may be "interested persons." An interested person is: (a) any person compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous 12 months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a director as director; and (b) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of such person. However, any violation of this paragraph shall not affect the validity or enforceability of transactions entered into by the corporation. No staff member of the corporation or another Planned Parenthood affiliate, other than the corporation's CEO, shall be a member of the Board, nor hold an elective office or have voting privileges in any other affiliate.

iii) At least two (2) individuals from each county in which services are offered shall be elected to the Board;

Individuals elected to the Board of Directors of the Planned Parenthood Federation of America (PPFA), Planned Parenthood Affiliates of California (PPAC), or the PPFA Action Fund from Santa Barbara, Ventura, or San Luis Obispo Counties may serve ex-officio on the Board during their tenure as members of the above organizations. In addition, the Board may designate from time to time individuals as "Honorary Directors," and such individuals may continue to serve as non-voting members of the Board for life. Individuals designated as "Directors Emeriti" prior to 1995 may continue to serve as voting members of the Board for life;
- v) The Chair of the ACTION Fund Board of Directors shall serve ex-officio on the Board with full director authority, including voting rights.

Section 3. Election and Terms of Office

Directors shall be regularly elected at the last meeting of the fiscal year of the Directors of the corporation and shall hold office for an initial "trial period" term of one year, which shall be a trial period for the Director and the corporation. Upon successful completion of the "trial period", at the request of the Director and the vote of the Board, the Director may be elected for two (2) additional years, for a total term of three (3) years or until death, resignation, or removal. Following that three-year term, the Director may be elected for an additional term of three (3) years without a "trial period."

Section 4. Method of Election

Members of the Board of Directors shall be elected from a slate presented by the Nominating/Board Development Committee. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting at which the slate is presented to the Board for information if the nominee has given his/her consent.

At the close of nominations, the directors then in office shall, by majority vote on each, elect as many of the nominees as they see fit.

The directors so elected, added to the directors continuing in office, shall constitute all of the authorized directors of the corporations for the year following and until the next election. The number of directors shall thereby be fixed for all purposes including the determination of existence of vacancies and quorums.

Section 5. Vacancies – Mid-term

The Board of Directors may elect directors to fill vacancies at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Vacancies shall be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining Board members at the meeting, or, if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, by (a) the unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (b) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a duly noticed meeting of the Board, or (c) a sole remaining board member.

Section 6. Successive Terms

A director who has served two consecutive three (3) year terms shall not be eligible for election to another term until at least one year has elapsed from the completion of his/her second term until the election. The Chair, Treasurer, CEO or directors elected to the PPFA National Board, PPAC Board, or PPFA Action Fund Board may be exempt from this limitation during his/her term of office. The immediate Past Chair may continue to serve on the Board for one additional year beyond two consecutive three-year terms.

Section 7. Removal of Board Members

Any Board member may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any individual Board member may be removed from office should he/she be absent for three consecutive meetings or for other excessive absences. Upon motion duly made and adopted by the Board of Directors, and notice placed in the U.S. Mail addressed to the last address of such member appearing in the corporation's books of record, the member's removal shall then and there be in effect.

Section 8. Meeting of the Board of Directors The Board, in its discretion, may designate a date, place, and hour for the annual meeting of the Board of Directors. Other regular meetings of the Board may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board.

Meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such place within or without the State of California as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board or by written consent of all members of the Board. In setting meeting locations, the Board shall acknowledge the geographic range of the affiliate.

Any meeting, regular or special, of the Board may be held by conference telephone or similar communication equipment as long as all directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and any such participation shall constitute a presence at the meeting.

Section 9. Regular Meetings – Notice

Unless the time and place of the annual or regular meeting has been established by Board resolution, written notices of the annual and regular meetings of the Board stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given to each director by (a) first-class mail, postage prepaid (b) telephone, including voice messaging system, (c) personal delivery, or (d) facsimile, (e) electronic mail, or (f) other electronic means. Notices sent by first class mail shall be deposited in the United States mails four (4) days before the meeting time. Notices given by personal delivery, telephone, or electronic transmission shall be given at least 48 hours before the time appointed for the meeting.

“Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, the Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board, or a committee meeting, through use of a conference telephone, electronic video screen communication or electronic transmission by and to the Corporation pursuant to Sections 20 and 12 of the California Corporations Code. Participation in a meeting through the use of conference telephone or electronic video screen communication constitutes presence in person at that meeting as long as all members participating in that meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting through use of electronic transmission by and to the Corporation, other than telephone conference and electronic video screen communication, constitutes presence in person at that meeting if both of the following apply:

1. Each Director participating in the meeting can communicate with all of the other Directors concurrently.
2. Each Director is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Board, including, without limitation, the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, a specific act to be taken by the Corporation.”

Section 10. Special Meetings – Call and Notice

Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose shall be called at any time by the Chair, or, if he/she is absent or unable or refuses to act, by the Vice-Chair or any two Board members. A meeting for the purpose of removal of a director or election of a successor may be called by five percent (5%) or more of the directors. Written notices of special meetings of the Board stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given to each director by (a) first-class mail, postage prepaid (b) telephone, including voice messaging system, (c) personal delivery, or (d) facsimile, (e) electronic mail, or (f) other electronic means. Notices sent by first class mail shall be deposited in the United States mails four (4) days before the meeting time. Notices given by personal delivery, telephone, or electronic transmission shall be given at least 48 hours before the time appointed for the meeting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the purpose is removal or election of a director, or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets, or a vote on merger, dissolution, or amendment to the Articles or Bylaws, notice shall be sent to each board member by first class mail or electronic communication not less than ten (10) nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting.

Section 11. Quorum

One third, but no fewer than Seven (7), authorized Board members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business except to adjourn until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Board present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be valid as the act of the Board of Directors unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of one or more directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

Section 12. Content of Notice

Notice of regular meetings shall include the date and time of the meeting, the place of the meeting (if the place is other than the corporation's principal office), and those matters upon which, as intended at the time notice is given, the Board shall act.

Notice of special meetings shall include the date and time of the meeting, the place of the meeting (if the place is other than the corporation's principal office), and the general nature of the business to be transacted; and no other business may be transacted.

For any meeting at which the Board of Directors are to be elected, the names of persons shall be given who are nominees at the time of notice.

For actions requiring approval of the Board members to remove or elect a successor Director, dispose of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets, or effect a merger or dissolution, or amend the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, the nature of the proposal shall be stated.

Section 13. Waiver of Notice

The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as action taken at a meeting regularly called and noticed if all the directors are present and sign a consent of the records of such meetings, or if a majority of directors are present and each of those present, either before or after the meeting, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who attends the meeting and does not protest, before or at the commencement of the meeting, the lack of notice sent to him or her.

Section 14. Board Action Without Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing, including but not limited to electronic communication, to that action. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. The action shall have the same force as a majority vote of the directors.

Section 15. Adjournment – Notice

A quorum of the Board members may adjourn any Board meeting to meet again at a stated day and hour. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Board members if the time and place is fixed at the meeting adjourned, and the adjournment is no longer than 24 hours.

Section 16. Reimbursement for Expenses

To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under these Bylaws in defending any proceeding covered by the indemnification provisions of these Bylaws shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately found that the person is entitled to be indemnify by the corporation for those expenses.
