AMENDED CONSENT ORDER

This matter comes before the District of Columbia Board of Medicine (the "Board") following the Board's interview with Dr. Joel W. Match, M.D., Respondent herein, to consider terminating the Consent Order issued on January 10, 2013. Upon consideration of all the information Respondent supplied to the Board, the Board now amends the Consent Order as indicated herein.

Respondent has been licensed to practice medicine in the District of Columbia since October 16, 1980. Respondent voluntarily entered into an Order regarding his Virginia license to practice medicine on October 17, 2012 with the Virginia State Board of Medicine (the "Virginia Board"). The Virginia Order disciplined Respondent for failure to conform to standards of acceptable conduct and prevailing practice within the medical profession, which is prohibited by D.C. Official Code § 3-1205.14(a)(26) (2001).

On October 31, 2012, the District of Columbia Board of Medicine considered the Virginia Board's action against Respondent's Virginia license, and determined that the Virginia action warranted reciprocal action Respondent's District of Columbia license to practice medicine. Respondent entered into a Consent Order on January 10, 2013.

Respondent has complied with the terms of January 10, 2013 Consent Order. Therefore, the Board has determined that it is appropriate to terminate the terms of compliance and probation imposed under that Consent Order. However, in view of the underlying circumstances that gave rise to the Virginia action, the Board is of the opinion that continued monitoring is necessary in the public interest.

ORDER

Accordingly, based on the foregoing, it is this _____ day of _____, 2014, by the District of Columbia Board of Medicine hereby ORDERED, that the terms of the Consent Order, dated January 10, 2013, is incorporated herein by reference as though fully set forth in its entirety; and it is further

ORDERED, that, upon the effective date of this Amended Consent Order, the probation imposed in the January 10, 2013 Consent Order shall be terminated; and it is further

ORDERED, that Respondent shall comply with all of the terms and conditions of the Virginia Order, dated October 17, 2012, and it is further

ORDERED, that Respondent shall be monitored under the Virginia Order, dated October 17, 2012; and it is ORDERED, that in the event Respondent violates or fails to satisfactorily fulfill the terms of this Amended Consent Order, the Board may then issue a notice to take formal disciplinary action against Respondent's license.
