Davidson Welcomes New Trustees

The Davidson College community is proud to introduce the five newest members of the Board of Trustees. The new members were welcomed at the February 11 Board meeting. They bring a wide variety of experience and knowledge to their new roles and will serve for a period of eight years.

Frances Watt Baker

Dr. Frances Watt Baker is a pediatrician and the daughter, wife, and mother of Davidson alumni. In fact, her family includes over 25 Davidson alumni, at least 15 of whom are physicians. Fran attended Carleton College and received her BA and MD from Johns Hopkins. Fran and her husband, Lenox '63, played an instrumental role in the successful completion of the new life sciences building and named the science complex to honor their fathers, Jim Watt '31 and Lenox Baker, Sr. Fran and Lenox have four children and live in Norfolk, Virginia. Their daughter, Margaret Baker, graduated from Davidson in 1995.
