An 82-year-old former doctor who served time in prison in the 1970's for selling automatic weapons was arrested on Wednesday after nearly 500 guns, 800 pounds of gunpowder and 100,000 rounds of ammunition were found in his home on Abbott Avenue, the police said. The suspect, Sherwin Raymond, was charged with two counts of causing a hazardous condition, they said. Officers said they discovered the weapons on Monday when they searched the house after spotting two handguns on a table. They had taken Mr. Raymond's wife, Elizabeth, home after she was found, disoriented, wandering the neighborhood, according to Ridgefield Police Chief John Bogovich. John Holl (NYT)
