

The In Basket

Published: Wednesday, October 25, 1989, 12:22 pm | Author: Michael Otis

Original article found online at: <http://www.theinterim.com/issues/the-in-basket-11/>

No coat hanger here

In January 1978, Shelby Moran of Chicago, then 39, walked into the Illinois Masonic Medical Center to see its gynecologist, Dr. John J. Barton, who gave her a drug manufactured by the Upjohn Co. to induce an abortion. But something went terribly wrong. More than ten years later, these three parties have been ordered by Cook County jury to award $9.5 million to Moran, now catastrophically brain-damaged.