MATTHEW REEVES, MD, MPH JOINS WOMANCARE GLOBAL TEAM

Posted on: September 9, 2010 by: Amy McNally

WomanCare Global is pleased to announce that Matthew Reeves, MD, MPH, has joined WomanCare Global as Vice President, Medical Affairs.

Dr Reeves is board certified in Obstetrics & Gynecology. He most recently served as a Medical Officer at CONRAD and as an assistant professor of Obstetrics & Gynecology at Eastern Virginia Medical School where his work focused on the early phase clinical trials of contraceptive and HIV prevention products. Dr Reeves received a BA in physical anthropology from the University of Pennsylvania and a medical degree from Harvard Medical School. He completed a residency in Obstetrics & Gynecology at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) in 2003 followed by a Fellowship in Ultrasound at UCSF where he earned a certificate in Advanced Training in Clinical Research. In 2006, Dr Reeves completed the Fellowship in Family Planning & Contraceptive Research and the MPH program at the University of Pittsburgh. Dr Reeves was on the faculty at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine where he was an attending physician at Magee-Womens Hospital in both the Gynecology and Ultrasound divisions. He has authored and co-authored over 30 peer-reviewed publications. Previously, Dr Reeves conducted research on post-placental and postabortal IUD insertion, contraceptive cost-effectiveness, provision of family planning services in the developing world, and applications of ultrasound in family planning. He has worked in Nigeria, Japan, Malawi, Vietnam, Haiti and Guyana. In addition to his role at WomanCare Global, Dr Reeves also serves as a research mentor for the Fellowship in Family Planning & Contraceptive Research at Washington Hospital Center.
