Annual Education Program Speakers - Mishka Terplan

Mishka Terplan, MD, MPH, FACOG, FASAM

Dr. Terplan is professor in Obstetrics and Gynecology and Psychiatry and Associate Director in Addiction Medicine at Virginia Commonwealth University. He is dual board certified in obstetrics and gynecology and in addiction medicine. His clinical, research and advocacy interests lie along the intersection of reproductive and behavioral health.

He attended medical school at the University of California, San Francisco; completed his residency at the University of Southern California, and a research fellowship at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is the Addiction Medicine Consultant for the Virginia Department of Medicaid Services and a consultant for the National Center on Substance Abuse and Child Welfare.

Dr. Terplan has published over 60 peer-reviewed articles with recent emphasis on health disparities, stigma, and women's access to intervention/treatment centers. He has active grant-funded research projects and represents the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and the American Society of Addiction Medicine on various federal taskforces and committees including the AMA's Taskforce to Reduce Opioid Abuse.

He has spoken before the United States Congress and has participated in expert panels at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), and the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) on screening tools for substance use among pregnant women, maternal addiction and neonatal abstinence syndrome (NAS).
