Birth Control, Abortion, & Reproductive Health

BIRTH CONTROL

Trying to decide what birth control is best for you? Check out the options here.

IMPORTANT: Even if you are under 18 years old, you do not need to get permission from your parents or guardians in order to obtain birth control, STI testing and/or an abortion. You are protected in New York State by confidentiality laws that make it illegal for doctors to tell your parents if you have received sexual and reproductive health services.

If you are a New York City teen and interested in reproductive and sexual health services in NYC, please check the NYC.gov website, Teens in NYC.

EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTION

In the U.S., progestin-only emergency contraception is available in drugstores on the shelf, without prescriptions, and without age restrictions to women and men. However, there may be age restrictions depending whether you are choosing name brands versus generic brands. Look for Plan B One-Step, Take Action, Next Choice One-Dose, My Way or other generics in the family planning aisle. You do not need to show ID to purchase emergency contraception. You may want to call to make sure your local pharmacy has EC in stock. Additionally, all emergency rooms are required to provide EC.

For other general questions about EC, this is a useful resource as well.

Find a morning after pill provider near you: <http://ec.princeton.edu/providers/index.html>

If you experience barriers to obtaining confidential healthcare, reproductive care, mental healthcare, or rape crisis care contact New York Civil Liberties Union, Reproductive Rights Project at 212-344-3005.

These clinics have age requirements:

All Community Healthcare Network Health Centers allow:

- 19 and under, EC service on a walk-in basis, with or without insurance
- 20 and over need to call ahead and need insurance

Others take patients 21 and under.

ABORTION RESOURCES

Book of Choices

The Book of Choices is a comprehensive guide providing unbiased information and options for women in New York State facing an unplanned pregnancy. The site features a list of over 75 abortion providers throughout the state, different ways to pay for your care, adoption and parenting resources, and a detailed chart of birth control

*Financial help for abortions—you may be eligible for Medicaid & expedited processing of Medicaid application in time to get an abortion. Talk to your abortion provider or call New York Abortion Access Fund (NYAAF) at 212-252-4757
