STEP 2 CLINICAL SKILLS (CS) SCORE REPORT

Name Sober, Stephanie Paula

Test Date March 19, 2007

USMLE ID

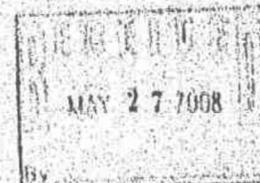

The USMLE is a single examination program consisting of three Steps designed to assess an examinee's understanding of and ability to apply concepts and principles that are important in health and disease and that constitute the basis of safe and effective patient care. Step 1 is designed to assess whether an examinee can apply medical knowledge, skills, and understanding of clinical science essential for the provision of patient care under supervision, including emphasis on health promotion and disease prevention. The inclusion of Step 2 in the USMLE sequence is intended to ensure that due attention is devoted to principles of clinical science and basic patient-centered skills that provide the foundation for the safe and competent practice of medicine. There are two components to Step 2: a Clinical Knowledge (CK) examination and a Clinical Skills (CS) examination. This report represents results for the Step 2 CS examination only. Results of the examination are reported to medical licensing authorities in the United States and its territories for use in granting an initial license to practice medicine. The overall Pass/Fail outcome provided below represents your result for the administration of the Step 2 CS on the test date shown above. For examinees who failed the test, a graphical performance profile is provided on the second page of this report.

*Overall
Pass/Fail Outcome*

The overall outcome for Step 2 CS reported above is based upon the minimum passing levels set by USMLE for the three Step 2 CS subcomponents. The three subcomponents are Integrated Clinical Encounter (ICE), Communication and Interpersonal Skills (CIS), and Spoken English Proficiency (SEP). It is necessary to pass all three subcomponents in order to obtain an overall passing outcome on the Step 2 CS. Results for the three Step 2 CS subcomponents are reported below.

STEP 2 CLINICAL KNOWLEDGE (CK) SCORE REPORT

Solier, Stephanie Paula

Test Date: January 17, 2007

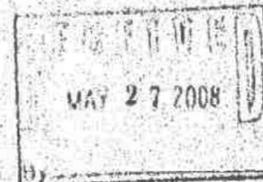

USMLE ID: [REDACTED]

The USMLE is a single examination program consisting of three Steps designed to assess an examinee's understanding of and ability to apply concepts and principles that are important in health and disease and that constitute the basis of safe and effective patient care. Step 2 is designed to assess whether an examinee can apply medical knowledge, skills, and understanding of clinical science essential for the provision of patient care under supervision, including emphasis on health promotion and disease prevention. The inclusion of Step 2 in the USMLE sequence is intended to ensure that the attention is devoted to principles of clinical sciences and basic patient-centered skills that provide the foundation for the safe and competent practice of medicine. There are two components to Step 2: a Clinical Knowledge (CK) examination and a Clinical Skills (CS) examination. This report represents results for the Step 2 CK examination only. Results of the examination are reported to medical licensing authorities in the United States and its territories for use in granting an initial license to practice medicine. The two numerical scores shown below are equivalent; each state or territory may use either score in making licensing decisions. These scores represent your results for the administration of Step 2 CK on the test date shown above.

[REDACTED] This result is based on the minimum passing score set by USMLE for Step 2 CK. Individual licensing authorities may accept the USMLE recommended pass/fail result or may establish a different passing score for their own jurisdictions.

[REDACTED] This score is determined by your overall performance on Step 2 CK. For recent administrations, the mean and standard deviation for first-time examinees from U.S. and Canadian medical schools are approximately 221 and 23, respectively, with most scores falling between 140 and 260. A score of 182 is set by USMLE to pass Step 2 CK. The standard error of measurement (SEM)¹ for this scale is seven points.

[REDACTED] This score is also determined by your overall performance on the examination. A score of 75 on this scale, which is equivalent to a score of 182 on the scale described above, is set by USMLE to pass Step 2 CK. The SEM¹ for this scale is three points.

¹Your score is influenced both by your pattern of understanding of clinical science and the specific set of items selected for this Step 2 CK examination. The Standard Error of Measurement (SEM) provides an index of the variation in scores that would be expected to occur if an examinee were to take repeated, equally difficult tests of their knowledge of the content.

STEP 1 SCORE REPORT

Test Date: February 13, 2008

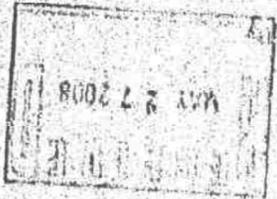

Saber, Stephanie Paula
 USMLE ID: [REDACTED]

The USMLE is a single examination program consisting of three Steps designed to assess an examinee's understanding of and ability to apply concepts and principles that are important in health and disease and that constitute the basis of safe and effective patient care. Step 1 is designed to assess whether an examinee understands and can apply important concepts of the sciences basic to the practice of medicine, with special emphasis on principles and mechanisms underlying health, disease, and modes of therapy. The inclusion of Step 1 in the USMLE sequence is intended to ensure mastery of not only the sciences underlying the safe and competent practice of medicine in the present, but also the scientific principles required for maintenance of competence through lifelong learning. Results of the examination are reported to medical licensing authorities in the United States and its territories for use in granting an initial license to practice medicine. The two numeric scores shown below are equivalent; each state or territory may use either score in making licensing decisions. These scores represent your results for the administration of Step 1 on the test date shown above.

This result is based on the minimum passing score set by USMLE for Step 1. Individual licensing authorities may accept the USMLE recommended pass/fail result or may establish a different passing score for their own jurisdictions.

This score is determined by your overall performance on Step 1. For recent administrations, the mean and standard deviation for first-time examinees from US and Canadian medical schools are approximately 216 and 29, respectively, with most scores falling between 140 and 260. A score of 182 is set by USMLE to pass Step 1. The standard error of measurement (SEM) for this scale is six points.

This score is also determined by your overall performance on the examination. A score of 75 on this scale, which is equivalent to a score of 182 on the scale described above, is set by USMLE to pass Step 1. The SEM for this scale is two points.

You agree to the terms of the USMLE Step 1 examination. The National Board of Medical Examiners (NBME) reserves the right to modify the exam at any time without notice. The score on this exam will be reported to you as of 10:00 AM on the day after the exam. For more information, please visit us online at www.usmle.org.
