Keith Samuels, MD, FACOG

OB/Gyn

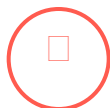

Dr. Keith Samuels was born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana. He has been taking care of patients in the Vail Valley since 2005. As a board certified obstetrician gynecologist, Dr. Samuels provides the full range of traditional OBGYN services. He has a special interest in high risk obstetric care, menstrual irregularities, and pelvic pain.

His surgical skills include minimally invasive laparoscopy and hysteroscopy procedures, uterine ablation for abnormal bleeding, and the office-based Essure tubal sterilization procedure.

In his free time Dr. Samuels enjoys biking, skiing, southern style Creole cooking, and spending time with his two daughters.
