About Practice

Dr. Makunda Abdul-Mbacke is a board certified OB-GYN and urogynecologist serving the communities from Eden, North Carolina and Ridgeway, Virginia at her practice, Piedmont Preferred Women's Healthcare. Dr. Abdul-Mbacke provides unparalleled lifelong care to women of all ages by providing services including gynecology care, ultrasounds, birth and delivery, STD testing, colposcopy, minimally invasive surgeries, and treatments for menopause and urinary incontinence.

According to her parents, Dr. Abdul-Mbacke announced her dream of becoming a doctor at the age of three. With the support of her family, friends, and community, she achieved her goal: Dr. Abdul-Mbacke earned her bachelor's degree and her medical degree from Yale University and also holds a master's degree in public health from Harvard University. She served her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Magee Women's Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and she's now a fellow of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Dr. Abdul-Mbacke has dedicated her life to helping other women protect and improve their health and wellbeing. She provides comprehensive and compassionate gynecological services to women at all stages of their lives, from adolescence to post-menopause. Her straightforward and compassionate approach to patient care helps her patients understand changes in their health and figure out how best to improve or maintain their wellbeing.

Dr. Abdul-Mbacke is looking forward to meeting new patients at Piedmont Preferred Women's Healthcare. Most major forms of insurance are accepted.

Medical Grade Skin Care Products VS OTC

Why are medical grade skin care products better?

FemTouch

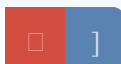

A fast, efficient and simple procedure done in the office with no anesthesia required. What is it? It is a procedure that will help with the symptoms women begin to notice after child birth, age, bladder issues and some sexual issues.

Acne

One reason I decided to study Aesthetics is because of the correlation of feeling good about yourself physically, makes you feel good about yourself mentally. Too many people have such low self-esteem and this affects all aspects of their lives.
