Sarah Horvath, MD

Sarah Horvath, MD MSHP, is the inaugural Darney/Landy Fellow at the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG). She completed her Fellowship in Family Planning at the University of Pennsylvania in June of 2018. During that time, she also completed her Master of Science in Health Policy Research, also at Penn. Prior to that, she completed Obstetrics and Gynecology residency at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital and medical school at the Pritzker School of Medicine at the University of Chicago. She is beginning what she hopes is a long career in research, education and advocacy for improving access to comprehensive reproductive healthcare for all women.

She is currently:

- Developing content for Implementing Progress in Abortion Care and Training (IMPACT) and Optimizing Care in Pregnancy Loss programs
- Bringing an evidence-based, patient-centered Family Planning perspective to internal ACOG meetings, external coalitions and conferences
- Representing ACOG in the media on Family Planning issues
- Strengthening the LARC Fellow rotation and continued involvement with ACOG through creation of a comprehensive advocacy curriculum and updating the evaluation process
