Re: Bankruptcy Case No. 04-31353
Gerald B. Applegate, Debtor
Chapter 7, USBC

Dear All:

I have repeatedly phoned you without recall to me, hence this letter.

I am informed that Karen Applegate, through her attorney, has submitted a proposed document as to any deficiency judgment concerning the previous matrimonial residence, now under foreclosure by mortgagee, and the debtors' retirement fund. As a creditor I consider this act illegal and preferential and may rise to a criminal act, and I object and I understand the Debtor objects also and will not enter into such an agreement. I invite the trustee to take obvious action, to protect the assets of the Debtors' estate, as well as any criminal action, or attempt thereof.

Reply and advise. Also advise hearing dates for my appearance.

Very truly yours,

Edward Applegate, Creditor
EAA/gh
