DeHaan, Dr. Quentin C. 93, of Lutz, died peacefully at home surrounded by family on Saturday, September 23, 2017. Dr. DeHaan, born in Illinois, came to Orlando in 1936. He graduated from Orlando Senior High School in 1942. During WWII, he entered the Navy along with his brother, [REDACTED], and earned the rank of Pharmacist's Mate First Class. After the service Quentin completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Florida in 1950 with a triple major in Chemistry, Biology and Bacteriology. He continued his studies at Columbia University Medical School in New York. Quentin chose to specialize in Obstetrics and Gynecology. Dr. DeHaan served as Chief of Staff at Polk General Hospital in Bartow for ten years. He began a private practice in Tampa in 1971, with privileges at Tampa General, University Community, and Centro Asturiano hospitals. In 1984, Dr. DeHaan opened the Natural Childbirth Center in Tampa. He continued to provide women's health care up to the age of 90.

Quentin began collecting stamps at the age of 11 and was an avid philatelist throughout his life. It was not unusual to find "Doc" at his desk meticulously sorting, cutting, organizing and setting stamps into their designated albums. Quentin donated to many charitable organizations world-wide. He was particularly fond of the organizations that supported the blind, impoverished countries, as well as animal shelters. Quentin was a devoted football fan of the Florida Gators. One of dad's favorite things to do was to have one of his children accompany him to a Florida game. The memory of driving to Gainesville from Brandon can be retold by all of his children. Quentin supported the Tampa Bay Bucs as a season ticket holder for over 20 years. . rain or shine he would be at the games.

Dr. DeHaan was preceded in death by his wife of 51 years, Madeline, and his brother and sister-in-law, [REDACTED]. He is survived by his five children: [REDACTED]. Quentin was blessed with ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

The family is having a Celebration of Life on October 21st at Trinity Memorial Gardens, 12609 Memorial Drive, Trinity, FL 34655, starting with light refreshments at 9:30am. The visitation will begin at 10am with sharing of memories and tributes. The memorial service will continue with a committal at the DeHaan Memorial Bench, where Quentin and Madeline will be placed together.

A luncheon and ice cream social will follow. For more information you can call daughters' [REDACTED] OR [REDACTED].
