About Dr. Clure

Dr. Cara Clure is a fellow in Family Planning at the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus. She completed her undergraduate degree at Washington University in St. Louis, MO and her medical degree at Loyola University in Chicago, IL. After graduating medical school, she moved to Minneapolis, MN where she completed her Obstetrics and Gynecology residency at the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Clure's research interests are in patients' and providers' attitudes regarding interpregnancy intervals, the initiation of postpartum contraception, and the barriers that women face when seeking abortion care. She is also interested in advocacy and reproductive health policy.
