The National Network of Abortions Funds (NNAF) released a statement yesterday distancing itself from nationally known abortionist Willie Parker after allegations arose that he was involved in a pattern of sexual misconduct.

Willie Parker has been heavily promoted by the Abortion Cartel over the years as being a supposed “Christian” abortionist in the South – one who could lecture actual Christians about their intolerance toward child-killing. Parker has been held up as a “hero” and an icon within the pro-abortion community.

Now this pseudo-Christian’s true colors have apparently been revealed.

In a blog post published on Medium on March 24, 2019, by Candice Russell, she admits to having an unwanted sexual encounter with Parker while she was heavily under the influence of alcohol. She had apparently been aware of rumors of Parker’s sexual misconduct, but remained silent because she idolized him for openly promoting abortions.

She apparently came forward, according to her blog, because she heard that news was about to break that would expose his predatory sexual behavior.

Teen hospitalized after botched 33-week abortion attempt; Abortionist didn't call 911 for urgent emergency

Woman heard screaming in agony after perforated uterus during botched abortion.

Planned Parenthood is dishing out abortion drugs to women using an smart phone app & the US Mail. Population Control agenda is behind this new scheme!

for women who cannot afford one, announced it was merging two funds, the Willie Parker Fund and the George Tiller Fund, into one in order to "make sure to remove any and all obstacles to supporting abortion funding in the South without being concerned about whether doing so matches the values we all hold dear."

"I'm not sure which 'values' the NNAF was referring to. Was it the ones that embrace chopping innocent babies in the womb or the ones that castigate Christians for trying to stop the slaughter and the abuse?" asked Operation Rescue President Troy Newman, whose pro-life organization has often exposed sexual misconduct within the Abortion Cartel.

The abortion industry has a major problem with sexual abuse, and Willie Parker's misconduct is just the tip of a very large and nasty iceberg.

An exposé published by Operation Rescue on October 19, 2016, reported on many of the more notorious cases. Here are just a few:

- Brian Finkle, a Phoenix, Arizona, an outspoken abortionist who was arrested and charged in 2001 with committing 67 sexual crimes, mostly on his patients at his abortion facility that he crudely called the "Vaginal Vault." He was convicted on 22 counts. The trial prompted 70 women to come forward with their own stories of abuse at Finkle's hands. He is currently serving 34 years in an Arizona state prison.
- Ohio abortionist Thomas W. Michaelis was arrested in 2014 and charged with possession of child pornography. He was convicted and sentenced to serve 15 years in federal prison.
- Former Planned Parenthood abortionist Timothy Liveright was accused of sexual harassment and inappropriate behavior with patients at a Delaware Planned Parenthood in 2013. He received only a public reprimand for his misconduct.
- Former Medical Director of American Women's Services in New Jersey, Vikram Kaji, now 82, was disciplined in 1994 for sexual misconduct with patients, including engaging in intercourse with them. Yet he continued on as an abortionist until earlier this year when his license was finally revoked due to dementia and disabilities related to a stroke.

Despite so many cases that are well documented, it is rare when the mainstream media gives these stories more than a couple of paragraphs in the local paper. Sometimes, the even fact that an abortionist is involved is left out of those reports.

This has only enabled the abuse to continue.

"Sexual abuse is the Abortion Cartel's dirty little secret. It's time to admit that these are not anomalous incidents. They reveal a pattern of abuse that the abortion businesses have kept secret for years," said Newman. "Hopefully, now that Willie Parker's abuse is out in the open, they will stop covering up for these predators, and allow them to be brought to justice."
