Biography

Dr. Serina Floyd is a specialty care physician board certified in obstetrics and gynecology. She joins Inova Medical Group with over 12 years of clinical experience. She has a special interest in family planning and contraception, global women's health, laparoscopic gynecologic surgery, and routine obstetric and gynecologic care.

Most recently Dr. Floyd served as an Assistant Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Duke University Medical Center where she practiced general obstetrics and gynecology. She was also the Director of the Family Planning Residency Training Program, and the Associate Residency Program Director. Currently, she is on the teaching faculty at both George Washington University School of Medicine and Virginia Commonwealth University Medical School and is an associate program director for Inova Fairfax Hospital's residency in OB/GYN.

Dr. Floyd became interested in obstetrics and gynecology because she truly enjoys all that the specialty includes. Her goal is to provide compassionate, collaborative care that will help her patients achieve ultimate health. Having lived all over the United States, Dr. Floyd currently resides in Alexandria, VA with her husband. In her spare time she likes to read, bike, run, hike, and travel.

INOVA PHYSICIAN REFERRAL SERVICE

Please make note of the following information.

This referral service is sponsored by Inova. Only physicians with appropriate medical staff privileges at an Inova affiliated hospital may participate. There is no charge or fee to you or for the participating physician for our service. Physician participation is voluntary.

Physician referrals will be based on your referral needs and preferences of location, specialty, and rotation availability of the physician.

The physicians on our referral panel are independent practitioners or physician employees. The independent practitioners are not employees, agents or representatives of Inova and are solely responsible for their provision of medical care to you.
