Pro-lifer files assault charges against abortionist

Pro-life activist Lynn Mills was sidewalk counseling February 9 at WomanCare of Livonia, in Livonia, Michigan, when late-term abortionist Theodore Roumell backed his car out of the parking lot, pulled up next to Lynn on the wrong side of the road, opened his door in an attempt to hit her – adding, “Excuse me,” with a laugh – then peeled off.

When Lynn followed Roumell, he attempted to sideswipe her as he pulled out on to the highway.

The incident was caught on video...

[youtube]<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7d0zACYL5B4>[/youtube]
Yesterday Lynn filed assault charges against Roumell.

On August 31, 2010, a mother sued Roumell and fellow late-term abortionist Alberto Hodari after a botched abortion resulted in a hysterectomy. Roumell rushed the abortion of the mother’s 19-wk-old baby, who had Down syndrome, attempting to complete it before her cervix was pliable. He got all baby parts out but the head. When she began bleeding profusely, she was taken by ambulance to a hospital, where it was determined her uterus and left ovary had been so damaged they had to be removed.

this guy reminds me of our local abortionist Martin Ruddock. every time we go his clinic ( in the ghetto ) i volunteer to hold the sign that says ” a woman won a 1 million dollar lawsuit against this abortionist for malpractice.” he loathes this sign. he pulls in like a mad man he rolls his window down.and always asks me ” that never happened. why do you lie,? oh but murdering marty is the liar and it DID happen. the same thing happened when he went to do a late term abortion ( he helped invent the procedure ) and he tore the womans cervix because he was going too fast. a public records request revealed a lot of garbage on this man. his own ex wife told pro lifers he is a sexual deviant and he sees no problem is asking former patients for sex. hes also tried to run over pro lifers but we know hes insane. hes been told to be very careful especially by local cops.

would you believe that Martin Ruddocks abortion clinic is right next door to a daycare? no lie.

heatherFebruary 24th, 2012 at 9:01 am also this kind of thing happens more often than one might think. the hospital down the street from me fixes botched abortions. theyve removed retained baby parts and done emergency hysterectomies. too bad theyve been killing babies for 30 years themselves. i had my kids there. on one side they deliver them and on the other they kill em.

Heather-the fact that his Abortion Clininc is next to a day care is no surprise to me. Planned Parenthood in Spokane Washington is next to a day care center (Crayon College), across the street from the Salvation Army Community Center and Shelter and in the Gonzaga University neighborhood. Abortion Clinics like to be in neighborhoods where they can cause the most controversy.

ClariceFebruary 24th, 2012 at 9:35 am

Look at this guy, trying to kill one woman in the street, and mutilating another woman on his table. Yet pro-aborts would insist that he should be honored as some kind of hero for women's health!

I guess it was nice of him to call an ambulance, that way the victim could sue him herself instead of a family member on behalf of her estate.

really Laura? yes its sad to look left and see the kids get off the bus and go into the day care. meanwhile there are 2 abortion clinics on shaker blvd.

Lynn MillsFebruary 24th, 2012 at 10:02 am

This 5 Mile abortion mill in Livonia, MI is also a bus stop for the Livonia Public Schools and yesterday two moms got mad at us when we NEVER approach their children and the only sign we have is "Google your doctor". Why aren't they mad at the baby killers or the school system for putting the bus stop there? Go to my website and see some of the awful conditions that these children have been through because of the careless abortionist.

I'm currently imagining what would happen if a pro-life person had done this (not that they would) to a pro choice protester.

It doesn't surprise me in the least that ANY of these "whackjob" abortionists would try to run down a pro-lifer..a WOMAN pro-lifer.

They hate women, and they love killing. That's why they do what they do for a living..

otherwise they'd be REAL doctors who heal women, instead of paid assassins who get their "jollies" hurting women.

i wish women would stop getting the backs of these women hating baby killers. they are not for us. and i just love that when i pulled up this guys site. all the credit cards he accepts. your uterus is a goldmine.

Wow. Really classy protector of women there. Glad someone was smart enough to record it.

Wow! This Lynn Mills is a nutcake Sidwalk terrorizing young women during a difficult time in their lives.

What's a "nutcake Sidwalk"? Whatever it is, we clearly need more of them...

talk about “a difficult time in their lives”...it’s absolutely KILLER for their children, prochoicemomma. Hey, you’re a prochoice mother? You realize that means there was a time in the life of every kid you have that you think it should’ve been legal for you to have that child killed, right?

Probably more true, even, than “your body is a wonderland.”

Heh.

Umm i dont think “nutcake sidewalk terrorist” needs much explanation. Yes even though I have children and wouldnt choose an abortion I believe women have the intelligence and right to choose what path their lives will take. whether that is Motherhood, adoption or abortion is up to them. NOT ME OR YOU!!

February 28th, 2012 at 12:41 am

Oh you mean the sidewalk counselor offering choices (alternatives to abortion), hope, and support to these women?

Do you condone this abortion providers violent actions in the name of protecting abortion rights? Did she deserve this because she is a “nutcake sidewalk terrorist” in your eyes?

Have you ever spoke with one of these individuals before you assumed or judged them beyond what you hear in the the circles of pro-choice blogs? What if she is well meaning in her own way? Maybe you ought to try to see this individual as a person, instead of an enemy through the eyes of a pro-choice activist. Also, last time I checked free speech wasn’t limited to only those who’s political views agree with yours and she has a right to free speech in this country and to peacefully gather and offer these women options other than abortion.

“Yes even though I have children and wouldnt choose an abortion I believe women have the intelligence and right to choose what path their lives will take. whether that is Motherhood, adoption or abortion is up to them. NOT ME OR YOU!!”

And realistically I know that the decision is not easy to make, nor is it made in a vacuum and for many women, the situation and decision itself is complicated and full of instrinsics. Sometimes individuals want guidance and support in making this decision, and this doesn't necessarily demean them or say she can't make the decision on her own, but rather to say that she is human and it's ok to seek out support during this difficult time.

Yes even though I have children and wouldnt choose an abortion I believe women have the intelligence and right to choose what path their lives will take.

Ok. Just as long as you admit that you're comfortable with the idea that you wanted and want it to be legal for you to kill any/all of your children as long as they're young enough.

Yeah, and when they're a little older, it should make for a nice mother-daughter chat. I can't imagine that would screw up her head too much.

There must be a Mother's Day card that says, “Thanks for not aborting me, though it was well within your rights and you were intelligent enough to choose your path.”

In Sioux Falls, SD our Planned Parenthood is strategically located across the street from one of our 2 high schools. Next door to it is also a childcare center who graciously allows free parking to those of us who pray in front of PP.

On a side note, I find poetic justice in the fact that the woman who killed her imperfect child (Down's Syndrome) can no longer have children.
