Abortion Clinic Flushes Medical Waste Down Sewer

Posted on February 14, 2013 by Sarah

NJ Acting Consumer Affairs Director, Jeffrey Burstein said this about abortionist Flavius Thompson of the Pleasant Women's Pavilion after the state pulled his license:

"During our investigation, we found that medical waste material was being improperly disposed of down the sanitary sewer at that location.

"If proper procedures are not followed, patients are potentially put in danger. That is wholly unacceptable. The Board of Medical Examiners expects its licensees to adhere to legal and professional standards of conduct, as does the public."

Jeffrey Burstein, Acting New Jersey Consumer Affairs Director
