Affidavit says doctor had porn tapes

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) -- A Brandon physician accused in a child pornography case admitted to the FBI that he mailed and received videotapes of children and adults involved in sexual acts, according to an affidavit filed in New York. "(Dr. Milan) Chepko admitted that he mailed and received through the mail and United Parcel Service obscene matter including videotapes and photographs with child pornography," the affidavit by FBI agent John Gamberzky says. The 44-year-old physician
