Dr. Moshe Hachamovitch

Moshe Hachamovitch, originally licensed in New York in 1966, was a 1960 graduate of Hadassah Medical School of the Hebrew University Of Jerusalem. He did a residency in ob/gyn at Bronx Municipal Hospital Center during 1965 through 1969, and had a fellowship 1969/70 at Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Bronx Municipal Hospital Center. He became ABMS Board Certified in ob/gyn.

His Arizona license was revoked in 2004 for unprofessional conduct (gross negligence, knowingly making false/fraudulent statements to the board, and failing/refusing to maintain adequate records).

Six abortion patients are known to have died either under Hachamovitch's direct care or under the care of an employe at one of his clinics.
