March 22 at 2:16 PM ·

"When the simplest of surgical masks became scarce, the CDC suggested that as a last resort, we use bandanas and scarves to cover our nose and mouth while caring for patients. Our loving friends and family started sewing homemade cloth masks to protect us. The year is 2020, not 1920. It is unfathomable that the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention compromised their high standards to include measures that are known to neither control nor prevent this disease. Compromises... See More
