	Date:	March 29, 2000
BOSLEY, Larry Lee, MD Beverly Hills, California	Cause of Action:	Disciplinary action taken against Respondent's license to practice medicine in California.
	Order:	Respondent's license to practice medicine was suspended for one year with a stay of enforcement on the suspension. Said license was placed on probation with conditions until June 3, 2004 or the date that his California probation is terminated.
	Date:	March 28, 2000
CAILLOUET, Gilbert E., Jr., MD Ogden, Utah	Cause of Action:	During 1999 on several occasions, Respondent prescribed controlled substances to one of his employees and the employee's husband. Respondent did not maintain records of the care he was rendering to them.
	Order:	Respondent was ordered to pay a $2,000 fine. Respondent shall cease and desist from violating the record keeping requirements of the Utah Controlled Substances Act.
	Date:	February 15, 2000
HANSON, Joel Wallace, MD Centerville, Utah	Amended Order:	Respondent's licenses to practice medicine and to prescribe and administer controlled substances are suspended until such time as Respondent documents successful completion of an intensive treatment program and the documentation is reviewed and approved by the Physicians Licensing Board.
	Date:	March 31, 2000

HARLINE, Wesley Grant, MD
Ogden, Utah

Cause of Action:

Respondent engaged in grossly negligent conduct when he performed the surgical procedures in question without a properly functioning pulse oximeter and cardiac monitor. Respondent engaged in similar unprofessional conduct when he failed to provide Mr. LeMond with supplemental oxygen during the extensive surgical procedures in question. Respondent engaged in grossly negligent conduct when he failed to monitor and record Mr. LeMond's pulse and respiration during the surgical procedures under review. Respondent engaged in similar unprofessional conduct when he failed to adequately monitor Mr. LeMond's blood pressure throughout the course of the surgical procedures in question. Respondent engaged in grossly negligent conduct when he failed to ensure that an anesthesiologist or nurse anesthetist was present to monitor Mr. LeMond once he became unconscious. Respondent also engaged in grossly negligent conduct when he was periodically absent from the operating room and left Clinic staff to monitor Mr. LeMond who were not trained to recognize a medical emergency or adequately perform emergency resuscitation procedures. Respondent engaged in similar unprofessional conduct when he supplemented the anesthesia record and did not also document the circumstances which prompted the subsequent entry of those blood pressure readings on that record.

Order:

Respondent agreed to voluntarily surrender his licenses to practice medicine and to prescribe and administer controlled substances and both licenses were revoked effective March 7, 2000.
