State board: Abortion case 'appalling'

By MICHAEL LASALANDRA | Page 16

State medical board officials say they are working to find ways to assess the clinical skills of doctors such as the one who botched two abortions in a spartan office without running water.

"One of the things we have been looking at is evaluation of clinical skills at the time of initial licensure," said Nancy Achen Audesse, executive director of the state Board of Registration in Medicine.

The idea, she said, is to make sure such doctors "have appropriate communication skills,...
