Amid the evacuation of thousands of homes in their area, anti-abortion enthusiasts in Shreveport, Louisiana were happy to see the unprecedented flooding around the state was affecting a local clinic.

A post on the Facebook page for the 40 Days for Life campaign showed flood waters approaching the Bossier City Medical Suite, stating “The sum of human capability pales in comparison to the power of God. THIS IS WHY WE PRAY. What the Supreme Court has rejected, God has now closed!”

As the Weather Channel reported, nearly 3,500 homes in Bossier were evacuated as a result of the flooding around the area. Gov Bel Edwards (D) declared a state of emergency for several parishes and dispatched the National Guard to conduct rescues.

The storms that produced flooding in Louisiana has also hampered portions of Oklahoma and Arkansas, resulting in the deaths of people.
