Planned Parenthood LA's new facility at 825 N. San Vicente Blvd.

Planned Parenthood Los Angeles has opened a new facility in West Hollywood at 825 N. San Vicente Blvd. north of Santa Monica. The reproductive health care center is PPLA's 20th.

“At a time when reproductive health care is under siege across this country, PPLA is committed to protecting and expanding access to critical health services,” said Sue Dunlap, PPLA's CEO and president.

The Planned Parenthood Los Angeles West Hollywood Health Center will offer a range of reproductive health care, including: gynecological exams, cervical cancer screenings, breast examinations, STD testing and treatment, birth control and emergency contraception, as well as counseling and education.

Appointments can be made by calling (800) 576-5544 or visiting <http://www.plannedparenthood.org>. Walk-ins are always welcome.

The office space at 825 N. San Vicente (across from the postal sorting center) is shared with Cedars-Sinai. I think Cedars has leased the whole building. I'm not sure what Cedars is doing there, but I don't think it is patient care. I always thought this would be a good location for AHF or the LA Gay & Lesbian Center/Jeffrey Goodman Clinic to have primary care offices. It's close to a major transportation hub, has plenty of its own parking and is fairly private. Nevertheless, Planned Parenthood is a welcome addition to West Hollywood. The Los Angeles LGBT Center has... Read more »
