DC Council Public Hearing on Bill 21-6, the "Healthy Hearts of Babies Act of 2015" »

The ACOG Long Acting Reversible Contraception Program invites you to a briefing by ACOG Family Planning Fellow, Amber Truehart, MD, examining frontline adolescent healthcare providers and their training regarding emergency contraception (EC). Dr. Truehart is investigating what residents are taught about EC, how they are taught about EC, and what opportunities they have to participate in providing EC care to adolescents.

Date: Thursday, January 29th 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM

Location: American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists

Space is limited. Please RSVP by Thursday, January 22nd to Kelly Cavanaugh: kcavanaugh@acog.org

Refreshments will be provided.

Amber Truehart, MD is a second year Family Planning Fellow at the University of Chicago. She graduated from Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, NY and completed her residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Baystate Medical Center in Springfield, MA. Her research interests include postpartum contraception and medical student/resident education.
