(<https://lifenews-wpengine.netdna-ssl.com/wp-content/uploads/2013/02/delaw3.jpg>) She was loaded into a St. Francis Hospital ambulance, according to Rae Stabosz of Newark, Delaware, who provided LifeNews with a video of the incident. Stabosz says the woman's boyfriend, or husband, followed the ambulance in another vehicle on the way to the hospital.

Local pro-life advocates taking part in the 40 Days for Life pro-life prayer vigil filmed the video of the emergency at the Planned Parenthood abortion clinic at 625 Shipley St. in Wilmington.

“At approximately 12:30 p.m., a woman was brought out on a stretcher from the back door, loaded in the ambulance, and taken (presumably) to St. Francis Hospital in Wilmington, whose ambulance it was that answered the call,” pro-life advocates said. “It was the third such event witnessed by the 40 DFL Wilmington group in a two-year period. We wonder – how often does it happen when we are not there?”
