SARAH STUMBAR NAMED ASSISTANT DEAN FOR CLINICAL EDUCATION**](#)

Dr. Sarah Stumbar named Assistant Dean for Clinical Education

---

Sarah E. Stumbar, MD, MPH, Assistant Professor of Family Medicine in the Department of Humanities, Health, and Society, will assume the additional responsibilities of Assistant Dean for Clinical Education. In this role, she will oversee and lead the clinical curricular activities during Period 3 & 4 of the MD program to ensure that students achieve the required knowledge, skills and behaviors required of a physician. She will work with Clerkship Directors and the Associate Dean for Curriculum to ensure clerkship learning objectives and assessments for clinical experiences meet LCME standards. She will also work closely with the Executive Associate Dean for Clinical Affairs in the identification of clinical sites and faculty recruitment and with the Director of Clinical Faculty Development to ensure that all faculty are committed and engaged in the teaching process. Dr. Stumbar will continue patient care and will also continue to serve as a Faculty Advisor to our medical students.

Dr. Stumbar received her BA in the History of Medicine from Yale University; an MPH in Sexuality and Health from Columbia University; and her MD from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. In 2015, Dr. Stumbar completed her residency training in Social and Family Medicine at Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx, NY.

Since joining FIU HWCOC's faculty in August 2015, Dr. Stumbar has been focused on teaching medical students at all stages of their training; and providing medical care to the underserved communities of Miami through FIU HWCOC's Green Family Foundation NeighborhoodHELP program. In April 2016, Dr. Stumbar became the Course Director for the third-year Family Medicine Clerkship; and has been working to develop innovative strategies to teach a holistic, integrated approach to primary care. In 2018, she was the recipient of the HWCOC Excellence in Teaching award in the "Course/Clerkship Direction" category.
