

To whom it May Concern,

On 2/25/2006 I was arrested and charged for damage of a native Arizona plant. At that time I was attending Arizona State University and I was living in a house bordering the university campus. That day my two roommates and myself attempted to remove a saguaro cactus from the front yard of the house we were living in. The cactus was very large and often times dangerous and obstructive especially when having guests over.

While attempting to take down the cactus, patrolling campus police stopped us and arrested us on the spot. With myself being from Connecticut and the two others being from Michigan and Illinois, we were shocked to find out that this particular cactus we were taking down happened to be a saguaro cactus and the state plant of Arizona.

Since this offence is taken extremely serious by the state it was escalated from university police to the Maricopa County Court. The disposition of the case was a Class 1 Misdemeanor.

I was placed on unsupervised probation for 9 months, had to pay restitution for the damages and complete 24 hours of community service. The probationary period was terminated after 5 months due to completion of probationary requirements.

The cactus survived.

If you have an questions or need further clarification, please feel free to contact me by phone or e-mail.

Thank you,

Christopher DeNapoles M.D.

SUPERIOR COURT CASE # CR 2006-119513-001 SE

WAIVER OF PRELIMINARY HEARING WITH PLEA AGREEMENT

DECLARATION by defendant as follows:

Defendant is represented by his/her attorney Isance Faden (print name)

(CD) I hereby voluntarily waive my right to a preliminary hearing understanding that I will be held to answer and an information will be filed charging me with having committed: Count 1: Criminal Damage, a Class 6 Felony committed on 2-25-2006

This is a NON dangerous, NON repetitive offense under the criminal code.

(CD) I understand and acknowledge that:

- A. I have a right to a preliminary hearing
- B. I am represented by an attorney now. Further, I know that I have a right to an attorney for all further proceedings in this case. If I cannot afford one, then one will be appointed to represent me at this preliminary hearing as well as in the Superior Court for all purposes including trial, free of charge.
- C. I am giving up the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses.
- D. I am giving up the right to present evidence in my behalf and that I am giving up the right to have the magistrate determine if there is sufficient evidence against me to establish probable cause to hold me to answer in the Superior Court on the above stated charges, as well as the right to a dismissal of charges against me if the evidence is insufficient.

(CD) 1. The State of Arizona and the defendant hereby agree to the following disposition of this case: as amended Plea: The defendant agrees to waive the preliminary hearing and plead guilty to: Count (1), Criminal Damage, a Class 1 Misdemeanor, in violation of ARS §§ 13-1601, 13-1602, 13-707, and 13-802 committed on 2-25-2006.

This is a NON-dangerous, NON-repetitive offense under the criminal code.

TERMS: On the following understandings, terms and conditions:

1. The crime carries a maximum sentence of SIX MONTHS JAIL. Probation is available. Restitution of economic loss to the victim and waiver of extradition for probation revocation procedures will be required. The maximum fine that can be imposed is $2,500 plus 80% surcharge and $5 probation fee. Special conditions regarding sentence, parole, or commutation imposed by statute (if any) are:

(CD) 2. The parties stipulate to the following additional terms: The Defendant shall be placed on probation. The Defendant shall complete 24 hours of community service. The Defendant shall pay restitution for all damages arising under Arizona State University PD DR #060544 in an amount not to exceed $1000.

(CD) 3. The following charges are dismissed, or if not yet filed, shall not be brought against the defendant: N/A.

vs.

Christopher Denapoles,
Defendant

(CP) 4. This agreement serves to amend the complaint or information, to charge the offense to which the Defendant pleads, without the filing of any additional pleading. However, if the plea is rejected by the court or withdrawn by either party, or if the conviction is subsequently reversed, the original charges that are dismissed by reason of this plea agreement are automatically reinstated.

(CP) 5. If the defendant is charged with a felony, s/he hereby waives and gives up her/his rights to a preliminary hearing or other probable cause determination on the charges to which s/he pleads. The Defendant agrees that this agreement shall not be binding on the State should the Defendant be charged with or commit a crime between the time of this agreement and the time for sentencing in this cause; nor shall this agreement be binding on the State until the State confirms all representations made by the Defendant and her/his attorney, to-wit: The defendant avows that s/he has No prior felony convictions and that s/he WAS Not on probation, parole, or community supervision at the time of this offense. If the Defendant fails to appear for sentencing, the court may disregard the stipulated sentence and impose any lawful sentence which is the same as or exceeds the stipulated sentence in the plea agreement. In the event the court rejects the plea, or either the State or the Defendant withdraws the plea, the Defendant hereby waives and gives up his right to a preliminary hearing or other probable cause determination on the original charges.

(CP) 6. Unless this plea is rejected by the court or withdrawn by either party, the Defendant hereby waives and gives up any and all motions, defenses, objections, or requests which s/he has made or raised, or could assert hereafter, to the court's entry of judgment against her/him and imposition of a sentence upon her/him consistent with this agreement. By entering this agreement, the Defendant further waives and gives up the right to appeal.

(CD) 7. The parties hereto fully and completely understand and agree that by entering into a plea agreement, the defendant consents to judicial fact-finding by preponderance of the evidence as to any aspect or enhancement of sentence and that any sentence either stipulated to or recommended herein in paragraph two is not binding on the court. In making the sentencing determination, the court is not bound by the rules of evidence. If after accepting this plea the court concludes that any of the plea agreement's provisions regarding the sentence or the term and conditions of probation are inappropriate, it can reject the plea. If the court decides to reject the plea agreement provisions regarding sentencing, it must give both the state and the Defendant an opportunity to withdraw from the plea agreement. In case this plea agreement is withdrawn, all original charges will automatically be reinstated. The Defendant in such case waives and gives up his right to a probable cause determination on the original charges.

(CD) 8. If the court decides to reject the plea agreement provisions regarding sentencing and neither the State nor the Defendant elects to withdraw the plea agreement, then any sentence either stipulated to or recommended herein in paragraph two is not binding on the court, and the court is bound only by the sentencing limits set forth in paragraph one and the applicable statutes.

(CP) 9. This plea agreement in no way restricts or limits the ability of the State to proceed with forfeiture pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 et seq.; 13-2314 or 32-1993, if applicable. Nor does the plea agreement in any way compromise or abrogate any civil action, including an action pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-2301 et seq. or the provisions of A.R.S. §§ 13-2314(G) or 13-4310.

(CD) 10. I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States my decision to go to trial or enter into a plea agreement may have immigration consequences. Specifically, I understand that pleading guilty or no contest to a crime may affect my immigration status. Admitting guilt may result in deportation even if the charge is later dismissed. My plea or admission of guilt could result in my deportation or removal, could prevent me from ever being able to get legal status in the United States, or could prevent me from becoming a United States citizen. I understand that I am not required to disclose my legal status in the United States to the court.

(CD) 11. I have read and understand the provisions of all 2 pages of this agreement. I have discussed the case and my constitutional rights with my lawyer. My lawyer has explained the nature of the charge(s) and the elements of the crime(s) to which I am pleading. I understand that by pleading guilty I will be waiving and giving up my right to a determination of probable cause, to a trial by jury to determine guilt and to determine any fact used to impose a sentence within the range stated above in paragraph one, to confront, cross-examine, compel the attendance of witnesses, to present evidence in my behalf, my right to remain silent, my privilege against self-incrimination, presumption of innocence and right to appeal. I agree to enter my plea as indicated above on the terms and conditions set forth herein. I fully understand that if, as part of this plea agreement, I am granted probation by the court, the terms and conditions thereof are subject to modification at any time during the period of probation. I understand that if I violate any of the written conditions of my probation, my probation may be terminated and I can be sentenced to any term or terms stated above in paragraph one, without limitation.

I have personally and voluntarily placed my initials in each of the above boxes and signed the signature line below to indicate I read and approved all of the previous paragraphs in this agreement, both individually and as a total binding agreement.

Date: 8-15-06 Defendant Chris Denapoles

I have discussed this case with my client in detail and advised him of his constitutional rights and all possible defenses. I have also explained the nature of the charge(s) and the elements of the crime(s). I believe that the plea and disposition set forth herein are appropriate under the facts of this case. I concur in the entry of the plea as indicated above and on the terms and conditions set forth herein.
