SOUTH WINDSOR, CT — A South Windsor doctor has been slapped with a hefty fine in a case of follow-up procedures for a cancer patient.

Records show that the Connecticut Medical Examining Board on July 16, reprimanded Dr. William Guinan of South Windsor and fined him $10,000 in the decade-old case.

The CT Health I-Team reported the details of the case. Click here (<http://c-hit.org/2019/07/22/state-fines-3-docs-a-total-of-25500/>) to see more.

Guinan no longer practices gynecology and obstetrics but works for a New Britain company that deals with work-related injuries, state records show. He was also placed on licensing probation, records show.
