

OBST 7110: Women's Health Elective

Department permission required prior to registration.

Course Director: Jennifer J. Trauscht- Van Horn, MD

Course Coordinator: Julia Price (julia.price@hsc.utah.edu (<mailto:julia.price@hsc.utah.edu>))

801-213-3374

Grading Scheme: Pass/Fail

OBST 7010: OB/GYN Clinical Clerkship

Prerequisites: (<https://utah.instructure.com/courses/530961/pages/obst-7010-obstetrics-and-gynecology-clinical-clerkship>)

Description: Students will formulate a schedule with the Program Coordinator based on the following options: contraception, abortion, STI's, vulvovaginitis, menopause, inf breast disease, rape recovery, and other areas of individual interest. Students w provided with the ACOG Compendium for reading assignments. Students will m with the faculty adviser at the start and completion of the rotation to discuss goa schedules, and reading for the rotation.

Course Syllabus: Not available

Location: University Hospital

Length: 2 weeks

Maximum Students: 1 per block

Course Classification: Clinical Elective

Visiting Student Info:

- Available to MD and DO 4th year students.
 - Must be in the top quarter of their class
 - Must have earned High Pass or Honors in Ob/Gyn Clerkship
- Applicants must upload:
 - USMLE Step 1 score report of 240 or higher
 - Home school must upload Class Standing Letter that states the student is top quarter of his/her class.
- Applications will not be accepted before April 1.

Drop Policy: This course requires 30 days' notice to drop registration.