

“It must be pointed out that AHCA’s suspension is based on two, and only two, patients out of over 100,000 patients served,” Gallagher said in a written statement. “AHCA is focusing only on two patients where there were issues, and ignoring 999,998 patients where there were no such issues.”