Just now finding out.

Thank you for all your years of service for women's healthcare, and thank you for being the one to get me through one of the most difficult things I've ever experienced.

I will never forget you.

Harris, please accept my condolences on the passing of your father. I recall you always speaking about how much he did for you when you were growing up and playing hockey, and I'm sure those and other memories will last forever. Take care.

Sherry, Harris and family,
Please accept my sincere condolences. George was a wonderful man with whom I always enjoyed speaking. His calm but steadfast support of Harris' hockey efforts were just one example of the extraordinary person he was. I regret that I can not attend services tomorrow but, I will make every effort to visit on Wednesday afternoon/evening.

Sherry and family, I extend my deepest condolences. When I think about George, I think of a kind and gentle soul. He was an awesome physician who cared very much for his patients. I use to it tease him that he looked like Neil Diamond. I pray that God will wrap you in his arms and sustain you during this very difficult time.

Sorrowfully,
