Redaction Reasons by Exemption

Redaction Date: 9/30/2022 1:33:25 PM

Reason Description Pages (Count)

5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c ) Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information. "Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information. The disclosure of information that bears on the public duties of public employees and officials shall not be considered an invasion of personal privacy.

Personal Info Private Info

5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b) Private information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order. 5 ILCS 140/2(c-5) for the definition of "Private Information". (c-5) "Private information" means unique identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers, and personal email addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law or when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person.
