

Hope Clinic for Women, Ltd.

PHYSICIAN CREDENTIALS AND PRIVILEGES

Attending Physician: Ashlee Bergin, MD

Privileges Granted for one (1) year:

Appointment date: 9/18/2023

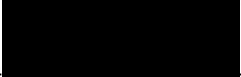

Dr. Bergin meets the following requirements, which are outlined in The Hope Clinic for Women policy as mandatory for obtaining physician privileges.

- 1) Dr. Berin has a current Illinois medical and controlled substance licenses as well as an unencumbered DEA license.
- 2) Dr. Bergin is board certified in Ob/Gyn
- 3) Dr. Bergin has skilled-equivalent practice privileges at an Illinois licensed hospital (Gateway Regional Medical Center). A letter of these privileges is on file at Hope Clinic for Women.
- 4) Dr. Bergin's complication will be assessed at regular intervals and is expected to be within the expected range of Hope Clinic physicians and other physicians providing abortion care.
- 5) Dr. Bergin has completed a satisfactory onboarding period.

By signing below, the members of the Consulting Committee of Hope Clinic for Women, Ltd. do hereby grant Ashlee Bergin, MD physician privileges for the next one (1) year.

Erin King, MD
Chief Medical Officer

Michele Landeau
Chief Operating Officer

Rebecca Wilson, RN
Supervising RN

Yogendra Shah, MD
Medical Director Emeritus