About

Dr. McHugh is a queer OB/GYN in Indiana with a national reputation for her advocacy for reproductive justice and expertise in chronic pelvic pain. She is deeply passionate about caring for her patients and defending their rights to health care. Dr. McHugh serves on the Board of Physicians for Reproductive Health and OutCare, as well as the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir and her children's School Board. She loves classical music, especially choral and opera, as well as animal rescue. She has two children and two dogs and a frankly alarming number of houseplants.
