| Note on 'Area of Specialty' Specialty board certification information was obtained directly from American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS), www.abms.org, or American Board of Osteopathic Medical Specialties (AOA), www.aoa-net.org, as a written direct verification, quarterly update, or from the official ABMS or AOA primary source verification website. Minnesota's Physician Profile contains specialty certifications only from ABMS and AOA, because they are universally recognized and easily verifiable. Other organizations certify and endorse specialization with their own standards and procedures. You may wish to ask your physician about such certifications if he or she does not list one of the specialties from the ABMS or AOA. Maintenance of Certification (MOC) MOC is an ABMS program of lifelong learning and requires physicians to self-assess their competency.
